LOST/FOUND

Steven Cock has lost his City Jacket. Red and white in colour (lol), the jacket has his name clearly marked in large letters on the inside of both sleeves. Please check your jackets to make sure that you haven't picked up Stevens by mistake.

Sandra O'Halloran has found a casserole dish that was wandering around the kitchen of McKenna Park after our recent Casserole evening. The 'Jane Doe' dish is very distressed at its separation from it's parents, so if it belongs to you please see Sandra ASAP.

POLO'S

Club Polo shirts still available. Please see Allison or Petrina if interested. The versatile polo can be purchased at a cost of $22.00

E-MAIL

As the season draws to an end, so does this means of communication (newsletter). To keep informed with any news over the summer and starting dates for training for next season etc.. - Let us know your e-mail address. Drop us a line at the address provided on the front!!

JACKETS

A reminder that at the beginning of next season an order will be placed for club jackets. If interested please give your name to Allison Lamprey.

COACHING CLINICS

Expression of interest is sought from those that may be interested in obtaining a level 0-1 coaching accreditation. The course would be held during the off season. Anybody interested please see Glen or Jill Cock.

FINALS - TWBUM

Its everybody's favourite time of the year....The finals are here. Please come along and support all our club teams as they endeavor to win the big one. The more support the better. Finals times can be found in the Advocate each Friday.

Whether you think you can or think you cant - you are right
- Henry Ford.

CASSEROLE NIGHT

A Big thankyou to all those who supported our casserole night held in conjunction with the vote count. A massive $551.00 was raised. From those that made the Casseroles, washed the dishes and even ate the casseroles - THANKYOU!!
